ACADEMIC SENATE
Resolution 20/21-08

Change to Senate Constitution concerning Part-time faculty

WHEREAS the University benefits from the engagement of part-time faculty in service and governance;

WHEREAS there is a contradiction between the USC Faculty Handbook Section 2-C2(c), which states:

4_C 2(c) Each school must have active participation by research-track, teaching-track, practitioner-track, and clinical-track, faculty members in faculty governance, including on faculty guidelines for those tracks, but not including matters concerning tenure and the tenure system. Part-time faculty are eligible to be elected or appointed to faculty governance bodies. The Academic Senate Constitution has provisions concerning participation in faculty governance by research-track, teaching-track, practitioner-track, and clinical-track, faculty (Article I, Sections 2 and 3).

and both the Academic Senate Constitution, Article I, Section 2, which states:

Section 2. All members of the Faculty Assembly (Article III, Section 1) are eligible to participate in faculty governance including in the Academic Senate and faculty committees. However, only non-retired, full-time faculty may vote for and serve on school faculty councils, and non-tenure track faculty are restricted from participation in certain bodies and votes (see section 3).

and Academic Senate Constitution, Article III, Section 1, which states:

The membership of the Faculty Assembly consists of all full-time faculty members (tenured and tenure-track faculty, nontenure-track faculty, and librarians), and those who have retired from these positions.

WHEREAS the Academic Senate Constitution, an internal Senate document, must be consistent with rules and policies in the Handbook, which which is endorsed by the University President;

WHEREAS the University has adopted the designation “research, teaching, practitioner, and clinical” to replace “nontenure-track”;

BE IT RESOLVED that the Academic Senate Constitution Article I, Section 2, shall be revised to read:
Section 2. All members of the Faculty Assembly (Article III, Section 1) are eligible to participate in faculty governance including in the Academic Senate and faculty committees. However, only non-retired, full-time faculty may vote for and serve on school faculty councils, and non-tenure track research, teaching, practitioner, and clinical faculty are restricted from participation in certain bodies and votes (see section 3).

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Academic Senate Constitution, Article 3, Section 1, shall be revised to read:

The membership of the Faculty Assembly consists of all full-time and part-time faculty members (tenured and tenure-track faculty; nontenure-track faculty; and librarians) and those who have retired from these positions.
