Catch me up:

What	How	Why
A way for students to let the USC community know which names and pronouns they use.	Build a central, DIY tool for for viewing and editing selected personal attributes	To support people feeling seen and welcome at USC.

Who does it help?

Students who:

- primarily use a middle name, nickname, or Americanized name

- Have chosen a name that better fits their gender identity

- Want to ensure the use of specific pronouns

- Want to communicate their gender identity

Who's behind this project?

This is a joint project of the Office of the Provost, Title IX, and the LGBTRC, implemented by ITS and the myUSC team.
